St. Mary's Chapel - 1863

Remember St. Mary, Fishkill, in your Will

BE ALL THAT YOU CAN BE!
BE STILL AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD!

A woman was the mother of ten children, the wildest kids you could imagine. The father traveled extensively in his work, so she was, for all intents and purposes, raising these hellions alone. The poor woman's life was unbearable.

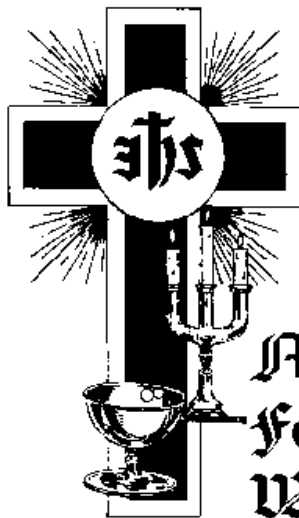

A Sister from the local parish heard of her plight and called on her. Seeing their small house and the behavior of the children, the nun's heart went out to the poor woman. She tried to provide what little help and support she could. Sister offered the woman a playpen that someone had donated to the church. The distracted woman, who had never heard of a playpen, nonetheless welcomed the gift.

Sometime later, Sister met the woman at church. With tears in her eyes, the mother thanked her for the gift. "That playpen has saved my life!" she said to Sister. "It's marvelous. Every afternoon at three o'clock, I jump into the playpen with a book and the children can't get to me."

Like the poor harried mother, we all need that "out of the way" place to re-center our lives on the things of God. Like Jesus, who rose at dawn and went to a deserted place, we must create our own "out of the way" place. An early morning hour before the rest of the house rises, a brief visit to a church during lunch, the last few minutes each evening before retiring. It can be a time for quiet prayer, for reading the Scriptures, for offering the Liturgy of the Hours or for reflecting on the words and insights of some of the great spiritual writers. Finding that "out of the way" place, creating within our day that "sacred time" to be alone with God can be the source of insight and grace that will illuminate every place and moment of our lives.

In a Washington, D.C. cathedral there is a statue of Abraham Lincoln at prayer. It is the work of artist Spencer Houk. Houk got his inspiration for the statue from a story that his grandfather told over and over. One day, he was walking through some woods in Gettysburg. Suddenly he came upon a kneeling figure. It was President Lincoln. Lincoln was a man of prayer.

"Meditation is not an escape from daily living, but rather a preparation for it. Like pearl divers, meditators plunge deep into the inner ocean of consciousness and hope to come swimming back to the surface with jewels of great price." ~ Ardis Whitman

Meet us in the school gym following the 9:45AM Mass on March 5, and enjoy a free buffet breakfast. Co-sponsored by GYM and The Marian Guild. God bless you!

ASHES TO THE HOMEBOUND

Parishioners may take ashes to the homebound. There are envelopes located in the rear of the Church, as well as a copy of a prayer service to be used for distribution of ashes at home. Bring the envelope to be filled to the priest or minister that is distributing the ashes. Note: It is not necessary to give ashes to infants and very young children, under the age of 7, because they are not yet capable of personal sin.

WE ARE A TITHING PARISH

God's Plan for Giving

In our prayers we often thank God for our prosperity, be it large or small. We see our peers struggling, and we are reminded to be grateful for what we have. Grateful to whom? Grateful to God, from whom it all originates. Our tithing is a small token of our thanks. St. Mary's is grateful, and we continue to show it.

CYFM Discernment Weekends at Graymoor: How Is God Calling You?

How is God calling you? The Franciscan Friars and Sisters of the Atonement are offering quarterly Discernment Weekends to help you discover the answer. The 2017 dates are as follows: February 17-20, March 16-19, October 19-22 and November 30-December 3. The weekends are for single, Catholic young adult men and women, 18-40, considering God's call to servanthood, whether that is as a priest, sister, brother or lay person. Learn discernment tools, hear how religiously vowed and lay persons came to hear God's call, and engage in rich prayer and discussion with other young adults. Visit www.atonementfriars.org/discern for more info, or to register.

ACTS Retreat: What Is It?

It's a three-day, three-night Catholic lay retreat presented by men who have attended prior ACTS retreats, under the guidance of a Spiritual Director and sponsored by the Church of the Holy Name of Mary in Croton-on-Hudson. Retreat activities focus on Adoration, Community, Theology and Service. The goals are to renew yourself spiritually, to strengthen your faith and its application in your daily life, and to create lasting and supporting friendships. Participants return to their parish faith communities with a deeper love for each other and a desire to become more involved. The dates of the retreat this year are March 2-5, 2017. For more information please contact Ray Byrnes at 914.456.7133 or Deacon Mel Pampolina at 475.8779, visit the website at: hnmactsny@yahoo.com or call 201.446.6509.

RETURN LAST YEAR'S PALMS TO MAKE THIS YEAR'S ASHES

Where do the ashes that begin the Season of Lent come from? They come from the palm branches that were blessed and distributed during Palm Sunday last year. Because they are sacramentals, they must be disposed of in a proper way. Please bring back last year's palms and place them in the basket on the table at the rear of the Church by Sunday, February 26.
